

Hulsey McCormick & Wallace, Inc. (HMW) is a civil/environmental engineering firm with a focus on providing responsive engineering and consulting services to municipal and county government, public water and sewer utilities, public institutions, and industry. HMW is rapidly growing and expanding into several marketplaces in the Carolinas and provides a dynamic and collaborative work environment.

Position: Civil Project Engineer- Greenville/Spartanburg

Job Description

Summary:

HMW is seeking a Design Engineer for water and wastewater treatment engineering and site development projects. Successful candidate will be under the supervision of the Division Manager and will work with various Project Managers as assigned to specific projects.

Qualifications:

- 1) Three (3) to Eight (8) years of experience in municipal-public utility wastewater and water treatment system design or civil-site design experience,
- 2) Bachelor's Degree in Civil or Environmental Engineering and Engineer-In-Training (EIT) certification is required. PE License and/or Master's Degree in either Civil or Environmental Engineering is a plus,
- 3) Excellent communication and writing skills,
- 4) Working Experience with Autocad Civil 3D is required. Experience with Bentley WaterCAD/GEMS, ESRI ArcGIS, Autodesk InRoads, Plant 3D, or Revit is a plus.

Specific Responsibilities:

- Prepare engineering documents for water and sewer infrastructure projects including: Preliminary Engineering Reports, Drawings, Specifications, Calculations, etc.
- Prepare permit applications
- Assist Project Manager with bid administration
- Assist Project Manager with construction contract administration.
- Attend project progress meetings at Client locations, via conference calls, or through video-conferencing.
- Active involvement in Water Environment Federation and American Water Works Association at the state and local levels.

Salary: Commensurate with experience

Benefits:

- Group Health Insurance – Shared employer/employee premiums
- Short-term/Long-term Disability Insurance – Employer provided
- Dental Insurance – Employer Provided
- Life Insurance – Employer Provided
- Health Saving Plan - Employer Contribution (if participates in group health)
- Simple Individual Retirement Account – Employer match up to 3%
- 15 days of vacation accrued
- 6 personal days accrued
- Continuing Education reimbursement
- Performance-based compensation